

ALL ABOUT

SOCIAL HOST ORDINANCE

Coming Together To Prevent Underage Substance Use

SOCIAL HOST ORDINANCE

holds hosts accountable when two or more minors possess or consume alcohol, marijuana, or other drugs on their property. In Marin County, violations can result in a civil fine of $750- $2,500, or criminal charges if other offenses are involved.

THE ASK We know that permissive parenting and allowing in-home use is a problem in Marin, so our ask is simple:

NEVER PROVIDE SUBSTANCES TO MINORS

DO NOT ALLOW SUBSTANCE USE IN YOUR HOME

ACTIVELY SUPERVISE TEEN GATHERINGS

VISIT 'BE THE INFLUENCE' for tools like party guides, scripts, myth-busters and more!

BTIMARIN.ORG/TOOLKIT

WHY IT MATTERS Teens allowed to drink alcohol under adult supervision at home are more likely to engage in harmful drinking behaviors, like drinking more frequently, binge drinking and drunk driving.

MARIN PREVENTION NETWORK

EST. 2010